Greater Palm Springs Pride Accepting Pride Honors Award Nominations

Palm Springs, CA (April 13, 2018) - Greater Palm Springs Pride has opened the nomination process for the 2018 Coachella Valley Pride Honors Awards. Each year a slate of honorees is selected for their many contributions to the betterment of the greater LGBT Community. The Pride organization invites the community to help identify those most deserving of recognition.

Palm Springs Pride seeks individuals, groups, organizations or businesses that have positively contributed to the LGBT community. Past Honors Award recipients include renowned photographer Michael Childers, LGBT rights pioneer Morris Kight, community leader Lisa Middleton, transgender advocate for LGBT rights Shannon Price Minter and Marshall Percy and Douglas Woodmansee, who have raised over $2 million for charity since their stage debut 38 years ago as Dottie Du Bois and Maude Chapeau.

“Organizations are encouraged to consider nominating their volunteers or longtime supporters. For businesses this is an excellent opportunity to recognize employees and customers who support the LGBT community through their work or actions,” says Ron deHarte, president for Pride. “The Pride Honors event is an opportunity for us to reflect, recognize those who are making a difference and offer encouragement to a new generation of leaders,” added deHarte.

The nomination information and submission form are available online at pspride.org. The nomination period closes Friday, June 1, 2018. If you have questions, please email info@pspride.org. A list of past honorees can be seen online at bit.ly/pshistory.
